PROJECTS

---

08/2022 - 06/2023

Capstone Project: Fake News Detection Website using Ensemble Learning Algorithm

In a team of two, I assigned tasks and concentrated on comprehending the Logistic Regression model. I managed calculations, documentation, and model reviews for system creation. Our system used Javascript and HTML, incorporating three APIs through Postman. In essence, I designed the model's logic and system, while my experienced partner focused on programming and system development.
